

Find Donation Dollars at your local newsXpress store

To get more Donation Dollars into the hands of Australian's and increase charitable giving, Australians can now swap their dollars for Donation Dollars at newsXpress retail stores across the country.

While Australians will continue to come across Donation Dollars in their change, this coin swap, available exclusively at newsXpress outlets, means that Australians don't need to wait to find a Donation Dollar in their change, they can simply visit one of the newsXpress stores to get their hands on a Donation Dollar – making this hard working coin more accessible to all. Every dollar out in circulation, is another dollar working to make Australia better.

If you are a charitable organisation, holding a fundraising event or simply looking to help increase circulation of Donation Dollars in your local area, you can now access the Donation Dollar at a newsXpress agency, dollar for dollar.

How it works

Visit one of the participating newsXpress stores and you can request to exchange dollar for dollar. The Donation Dollar is intended to inspire charitable donations in your community and with 25 million set to be in circulation, we would encourage you to keep them moving and doing their good work.
